

Dancing Your Dreams

It's hard for me to smile when you're looking so lonely

It's hard for me to laugh when you're feeling blue

It just might take a while to show you it's never as dark as it seems

But I'll be right by your side until you're dancing your dreams

I'll hold you while you cry when your poor heart gets broken

I'll laugh with you again when you're on the mend

I know you'll find a way to laugh down your troubles in all their extremes

And it's never hard to smile while you're dancing your dreams

Let me see your big bright smile like the sun coming up over the sea

Whistle me a tune, spin around the room, like you do when you're laughing with me

Who could see you smile and not want to smile with you?

Who could hear you laugh and not laugh along?

The world's already cried enough tears to overflow all of her streams

We need to hear your song and see you dancing your dreams

Let me see your big bright smile like the sun coming up over the sea

Whistle me a tune, spin around the room, like you do when you're laughing at me

Who could see you smile and not want to smile with you?

Who could hear your laugh and not laugh out loud?

The world's already cried enough tears to overflow all of her streams

We need to hear your song and see you dancing your dreams

Let us hear your song and see you dancing your dreams

It's time to hear your song and see you dancing your dreams
