

Madeleine (Sabre Sue)

Hello, you wanna have some fun?

My name is Madeleine and I'm the one

My, my, you're such a handsome guy

I love your eyes, oh, your hair

Pardon, I can't help but stare

I've got no needle for my phonograph

The water's running but there ain't no bath

I'm needy, but, oh, you're so greedy

Now, not so fast

I'd love to love you buy you make me laugh

Slow down before you break your heart

You're off and running way before we start

Now, there. That's much better

Do that again

Oh, I'd better go before I go too far

I'm in the middle of the mood for love

But what you do you do in such a rush

It's necessary to be fairly nonchalant

That's how I get everything I want

Good night. I hope you had your fun

I'm going upstairs, if you wanna come

Bye-bye. Tell your wives I said, Hello

And come back next week, for another show
